INFOWHYSE GMBH (GERMANY) ANNOUNCES THE LAUNCH OF EDIVOTE®100 (A FREE UNGEREGISTERED VERSION OF THE POPULAR EDIVOTE®PRO POWERPOINT® ADD-IN)

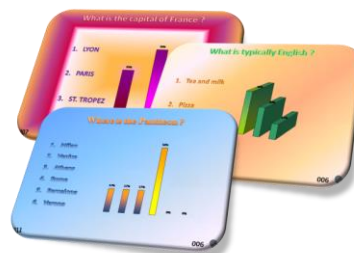

Infowhyse, one of Europe's leading providers of audience response (electronic voting) systems and solutions, is delighted to announce that Infowhyse GmbH has launched Edivote®100 (further details on www.edivote100.com.)

Edivote®100 is an unregistered free download of our popular Edivote®Pro software for non-commercial use and that can be utilized with up to 100 Reply® keypads.

Edivote®Pro, which has been an industry leader for over 5 years, and now Edivote®100 is as easy as 1,2,3.

The key to Edivote® is simplicity! Edivote® is a Microsoft PowerPoint® Add-In.
Easy Reports using Microsoft EXCEL®

- Supports PowerPoint 2007 – 2013 (32-Bit)
- Basic Voting functions
- Demographics
- Scoring
- Multi Digit
- Ranking
- Rating
- Free Numeric entries (Reply Plus, Interact, Engage)

- Advanced Excel reports
- Roster
- Weighted Voting
- Scoreboards

Edivote® (Whether Edivote®Pro or Edivote®100) covers all the requirements of 80% of most meetings currently held.

Using the chosen Reply® keypads together with EdiVote® provides all the standard voting functionality plus demographic groupings, comparisons, ranking, rating and the ability to run quizzes with individual and/or team scoring. Edivote®Pro and Edivote®100 are both POWERPOINT® ADD-IN's.

EdiVote® is the free, trusted standard for voting with the Reply® range of audience response keypads. And now with Edivote®100 you can also try out the Reply® Byopad™, our hybrid smartphone version, contained within.

Infowhyse GmbH established its operations in 2004, operating from their HQ offices in Bad Nauheim (near Frankfurt), Germany. Infowhyse has been at the forefront of audience response market development in its own right, as well as being the hardware provider, software developer and inventory hub for numerous resellers and service partner companies spanning some 30 countries.
